

I Thomas Oliver of Flitwick Warren Farm in the Parish of Flitwick in the county of Bedford Farmer Do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament First my will is that all my Freehold Estate shall descend to my eldest son William Oliver his heirs and assigns for ever. And I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Coster thirty pounds and to my son Thomas Oliver Five Pounds and to my daughter Elizabeth Oliver One Hundred pounds these several sums to be paid within two years after my decease and in case either of them die before the expiration of two years after my decease then the Legacy to him her or them so dying shall be void. Also I give to each of the children of my late daughter Ann Hobbs who shall live to the age of Twenty One years Ten Pounds to be paid them on their respectively attaining that age. All the residue and remainder of my monies goods chattels rights credits and all other my personal estate whatsoever I give to my son James Oliver his Executors Administrators and assigns And I do constitute and appoint my said son James Oliver sole Executor of this my last will and testament contained in one sheet of paper. In witness thereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of May in the year One thousand Seven Hundred and ninety nine.

The mark of Thomas Oliver X

The will is dated for probate on Feb 13th 1805, cost £17:12:6

Transcribed from original held at Bedfordshire & Luton Archives and Records Services, County Hall, Bedford, on 3 July 2007 by Robert Hale